

CORE B– 1639 Legal Issues: Meeting Client Expectations

This course will discuss basic knowledge a client has the right to expect from his/her agent. The agent should be conversant with agency, record management, contract preparation, disclosures expected under the law, land use regulations, environmental issues, taxation, market analysis, anti trust, financing, closing preparation, RESPA, ethical decision making and servicing the consumer